March 8, 2011. Hanoi, VietNam.

Dr. Ngo Bao Chau, professor at the University of Chicago and Fields Medal winner in 2010 for mathematical achievements (mostly in France at Université Paris-Sud Orsay), and Dr. Annick Suzor-Weiner, Science Counselor and president of the Science Diplomat Club of Washington, former vice-president of Université Orsay, were honored during the same ceremony at University of Hanoi, in presence of Vietnamese authorities and the President of the University of Chicago.