France–Atlanta 2011: Geriatric Nephrology in the 21st Century: Challenges and Opportunities

Published on Tuesday May 24, 2011
View online: https://www.france-science.org/Syposium-on-Kidney-Chronic.html

- Where: Klamon Room (CNR 8030), Rollins Building, Rollins School of Public Health Claudia Nance, Emory University 1518 Clifton Road, Atlanta, Georgia 30322.
- When: November 7, 2011 from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Presentations will include discussion of patient demographics and risk factors for development of chronic kidney disease in elderly patients, disparities in access to the renal transplant waiting list, transplant outcomes in the elderly, and options for renal replacement therapies and dialysis vascular access in the elderly, with special emphasis on results from population and clinical studies conducted in France and the U.S.

Speakers include faculty from Emory University, the French National Biomedicine Agency, Lapeyronie Hospital at Montpellier and the French National Institute of Health and Medical Research (INSERM).

More information on France-Atlanta.org