The Embassy of France to the United States and the FACE Foundation are accepting application proposals for the Partner University Fund (PUF). PUF promotes innovative collaborations of excellence in research and education between French and American institutions of higher education. PUF supports emerging transatlantic partnerships with the potential to continue beyond the initial 3-year grant. PUF currently supports 55 multifaceted partnerships in all fields of study.

Partnerships may combine elements such as:
- Joint initiatives in Research and publications
- Faculty and postdoctoral mobility
- Collaboration in teaching
- Shared programs
- Joint and dual degrees at the master's and PhD levels

Thanks to private donors and public contributions, PUF will fund up to 30% of the cost of the selected projects, in the limit of 80,000 USD annually. The generous grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation (www.mellon.org) will allow the projects in the humanities to be eligible to a higher level of financial support (up to 60% of the cost and 160,000 USD annually).

Projects proposals must be jointly submitted by at least one American and one French university, by February 6, 2012.
Funding decisions will be announced in May 2012 for the 2012-2013 academic year.
