The NETVA initiative (New Technology Venture Accelerator) run by the Boston section of the Office for Science and Technology is organizing a training seminar on entrepreneurial development in the United States as part of their mission to train, prepare and expose young innovative companies to the American entrepreneurial culture.

- When: Monday July 2, 2012 from 9:00am - 6:00pm.
- Where: Issy les Moulineaux (Paris), France

More information on this event for French entrepreneurs, as well as the agenda and registration information can be found at http://opportunities-usa.eventbrite.com