Alliance Française offers French language courses in Paris as well as in many US cities, segmented into two months courses per level. Levels range from beginner to advanced. In addition, a Cultural level (aimed at taking an in-depth look at socio-cultural themes), and a Literary level (which provides an overview of French literature) are available.

Preparation courses for the Diplomas of Studies in the French Language, and the Advanced diploma of the French Language are also available.

If you want to enroll, find the Alliance Française next to you, where all details pertaining to tuition fees, and schedules are provided.