MoGo + Bull champions of Go

Published on Thursday April 10, 2008
View online: https://www.france-science.org/MoGo-Bull-champions-of-Go.html

During a Parisian Go tournament, organized from March 22 to 24 by the French Federation for Go, the INRIA robot MoGo, which operates on a Bull supercalculator, won a third of 9x9 competition against fifth professional DAN Catalin Taranu. This is the first official "non blitz" victory for a machine against a Go master.

Read more here (in French).