

Café des Sciences #100 "I Innovate Therefore I Am"

Published on Wednesday September 4, 2019

View online : <https://www.france-science.org/Cafe-des-Sciences-100-I-Innovate.html>

- When : Monday, September 30, 2019
- Where : La Voile BROOKLINE, 1627 Beacon St, Brookline, MA 02445
- Registration
- Presentation in French

Presentation

Come celebrate the 100th edition of the Boston Café des sciences by sharing the experiences of several French-speaking scientists!

Success stories, advice, innovation... they will share with us their experiences and the development of their research projects and/or startups as expatriates.

Moderator

Cyrille Kuhn, Ph D

Since 2015, Cyrille has been responsible for the Boehringer Ingelheim-Research Beyond Borders (RBB) organization in Ridgefield. In his current role, he is leading a group of scientists to explore therapeutic potentials of new scientific fields such as the Microbiome and Regenerative Medicine. Prior to this position, Cyrille led the Research Networking and Strategic Planning organization where he oversaw a wide range of activities including the identification of new collaboration opportunities, Competitive Intelligence, and Scientific Information, Internal Process Improvement and the Bio-informatic group. Cyrille joined Boehringer Ingelheim (BI) Canada in 2008 as a Director of Lead Discovery and Parallel Chemistry. During his time in this role and as part of the Infectious diseases Therapeutic Area, he focused on identifying high quality leads with favorable drug-like properties. Cyrille began his career in 1998 in drug discovery at Parke-Davis in Fresnes (France) as part of the Allergy and Respiratory Therapeutic Area. In 2003, Cyrille moved to the US to join the Pfizer Research Technology Center in Cambridge, MA, where he led multiple successful project teams in the areas of Oncology, Inflammation and Metabolic Diseases.

Program

6:00 pm: Welcome
6:20 pm: Round table
7:00 pm: Q&A
7:15 pm: Networking

Partners of the Café des Sciences

For more information: <https://cafesciences.org/>