

Apéro des Sciences in SF #2 : The Search for a new Earth

Published on Wednesday May 27, 2015

View online : <https://www.france-science.org/Science-Cafes-in-SF-2-The-Search,3041.html>

The Office for Science and Technology at the French Consulate of San Francisco launched the "Apéro des Sciences", a new series of meetings in french on scientific topics.

This "Apéro des Sciences" is organized in partnership with the association X-Berkeley, and will take place on May 28 at the University of California in Berkeley. Dr. Franck Marchis, director of the Research at the Carl Sagan Center of the SETI institute, will speak about the "Search for a new Earth".

- Where: UC Berkeley, Cory hall, room 521 (map)
- When: Thursday May 28 at 6pm
- Registration
- Presentation in French

For more information about the presentation and Dr. Marchis, read this article in French.